NATURAL SELECTION

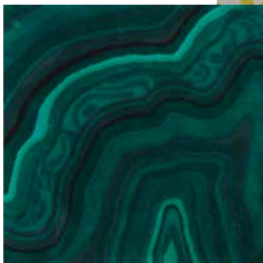

IF ADAPTATION IS THE KEY TO SURVIVAL, THESE NATURE-INSPIRED DESIGNS ARE THIS SEASON'S CHICEST CONTENDERS.

PRODUCED BY ASHLEY HOTHAM COX

Mimicking forms and patterns found in the natural world—from organic designs with fluid lines that emulate the movement of meandering rivers to hand-cut glass mosaic tile that create a faux bois effect—these new products provide a renewed sense of the great outdoors, redefining natural selection.
