

1 Paola Navone's Chopstix chair for Janus et Cie has a seat and back of handwoven olefin rope, available in three colors, $1,796; 800-245-2687; janusetcie.com.

2 Handmade in Ethiopia for Design Within Reach, the 22-inch-square Gey pillows feature patterns inspired by the walled city of Harar, $235; 800-944-2233; dwr.com.

3 Designer Andrea Forapani teamed with metalsmith Riccardo Puglielli and umbrella company Francesco Maglia to create a fanciful version of his Lombrella chair for Artemest, $1,070; artemest.com.

4 It takes nearly 100 hours to craft And Objects' Waltham console, combining column-like scagliola legs and an ebonized oak top, $18,000; andobjects.com.

5 Nicole Fuller's Jungle carpet for The Rug Company channels the palms and turquoise waters of the Kenyan island of Lamu, $137/sq. ft.; 646-713-1209; therugcompany.com.